PROGRAM "H" PROMISES INCREASED PRODUCTION

Program "H" has aroused great interest among owners of small and medium-size farms, as is shown by the increased production. At present, there are 140 mass purchase centers attached to the Gminie Spółdzielnie Samopomocy Chłopskiej (Communal Cooperatives of Peasant Self-Aid). Up to 28 February, 7,799 head of livestock were contracted for, 21 percent of the estimated amount in the plan. According to reports received from various parts of the województwo, the plan will be fulfilled far above the estimated figure. For example, 1,500 head were planned to be contracted for in Przemyśl Powiat and, to date, 1,040 head have already been pledged.

In Jaroslaw Powiat, Program "B" is carried on in the form of production competition. The Gmina Spółdzielnia (Communal Cooperative) in Jaroslaw village has pledged to contract 6,000 head of hogs; the cooperative at Radymno, 1,000 head; Tuchemy, 600 head.

The district Zwiaski Gminnych Spoldzielni (Associations of Communal Cooperatives) have undertaken to organize breeding and fattening stations, which over a period of a year will contribute nearly 1,000 head of cattle and hogs to the program.
